LB 809, 341

you to think about it. If you want to go home and tell folks you just don't care, with Ed Jaksha rambling around out there in the bushes, you know, and I'm not saying this is going to stop Ed Jaksha, I doubt it will, but if you want to go home and say we just don't care, vote no on this bill. If you want to go home and say, yes, we care, we didn't have the money but, yes, we care, vote to override on 809.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the bill pass notwithstanding the action of the Governor? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It takes 30 votes. Have you all voted that care to? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read as found on page 2450 of the Legislative Journal.) 33 ayes, 16 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill passes notwithstanding the action of the Governor.

CLERK: The next motion I have, Mr. President, is by Senator Vickers. Senator Vickers would move that LB 341 become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Vickers.

SENATOR VICKERS: Mr. President and members, this is the same song, second verse. This is very similar to the vote you just took. This is very similar to that issue although this is a much broader answer to that particular problem. Now I indicated on Select File, I indicated again on Final Reading and I want to make it very clear now that the Governor had his options as far as LB 341A was concerned and the Governor chose to veto the bill. There is not a motion up there, at least I don't have a motion up there to override the Governor on 341A. I want so that everybody understands, this is LB 341, the bill itself. This bill does not have any money in it but it does set some long-range goals and that long-range goal is to support education through the sales/income tax from the state level up to a 45 percent of the cost as opposed to the 27 percent about that it is right now. Now if this body wants to do anything for the future for property taxes, then I suggest
